Secondary Living Unit

A second single-family residential living unit located on the same lot as the primary living unit, which provides independent provisions for living/sleeping, cooking, and sanitation. The secondary living unit is only for use by family members or relatives. This unit may either be attached or detached from the primary unit, but it shall not be rented or leased. If attached, has a separate independent entrance not connected to the primary structure. A mobile home or HUD-Code manufactured home shall not be considered an accessory secondary living unit.

Also known as, Accessory Dwelling Units

Household Living

This use category is characterized by residential occupancy of a dwelling unit by a household. Tenancy is arranged on a month-to-month or longer basis (lodging where tenancy may be arranged for a period of less than 30 days is classified under the "Lodging Facilities" category). Common accessory uses include recreational activities, raising of pets, gardens, personal storage buildings, hobbies, and parking of the occupants' vehicles.
