

2022 First Friday Ethics (August 2022)

August 5, 2022 • STUDIO WEBCAST

Friday Morning, Aug. 5, 2022

10:00 am 1.00 hr ethics	Conflict and Privilege Issues in LLC Member Disputes  This course summarizes when and the extent to which an attorney may represent a limited liability company and/or individual members in disputes between members or between members and the company, including derivative actions.  Greg Sapire, Soltero Sapire Murrell PLLC - Austin, TX
11:00 am	10-Minute Break
11:10 am 1.00 hr ethics	What Do You Mean I'm a Witness? (REPLAY)  Lawyers, particularly outside litigation counsel, sometimes operate under the mistaken impression that their role as counsel shields them from being called to testify as a witness. Explore the circumstances under which an attorney can be called to testify as a witness, including as a witness in proceedings in which the attorney is serving as an advocate. This session also touches upon the intersection between an attorney's first-hand factual knowledge and the protections of the attorney-client privilege.  Jason Boulette, Boulette Golden & Marin L.L.P. - Austin, TX
12:10 pm	10-Minute Break
12:20 pm 1.00 hr ethics	Responsible AI: Ethical Considerations and Building Trust through Transparency, Fairness, Accountability (REPLAY)  Successful adoption of AI technology by organizations greatly depends on trust, which can be difficult to achieve. Hear ethical considerations and practical approaches as organizations work to incorporate transparency, fairness, accountability, and other principles in their efforts to build trust and implement responsible AI.  Wendell J. Bartnick, Reed Smith LLP - Houston, TX Brian Luskey, DISCO - Austin, TX
1:20 pm	Presentations Conclude