

2021 First Friday Ethics (November 2021)
November 5, 2021 • STUDIO WEBCAST

Friday Afternoon, Nov. 5, 2021

11:30 am 1.00 hr ethics	TRUST ME I'm A Lawyer Very few lawyers ever receive practical training on office finance, and yet misuse of trust accounts remains the easiest way to lose a law license. Take this great refresher course, which is designed to improve your knowledge of the rules, and the ethical way to handle all your accounts. Claude E. Ducloux, Attorney at Law - Austin, TX
12:30 pm	30-Minute Break
1:00 pm 1.00 hr ethics	How to Be an Ethical Ally (REPLAY) Are you a person who notices inequities around you? Do you want to respond when you see or hear another person being slighted? Do you work with a bunch of attorneys? If you said "yes" to any of these questions, then this is the ethics presentation is for you. We'll dive into some common biases sometimes seen in law firms and legal departments and discuss how you can effectively interrupt these biases by being an ally to your peers and to your profession. DeDe Church, DeDe Church & Associates, LLC - Austin, TX
2:00 pm	30-Minute Break
2:30 pm 1.00 hr ethics	Cybersecurity and Remote Lawyering - Ethical Duty of Technology Competence Join Elizabeth Rogers as she explores the implications of the ethical duty of technology competence in the context of remote lawyering and overcoming privacy and confidentiality challenges for attorneys. What is happening now, lessons learned, how to remotely work in a secure way using hybrid transitions and protocols with network security going forward. Elizabeth Rogers, Michael Best & Friedrich LLP - Austin, TX
3:30 pm	Adjourn